Terms & Conditions

Congratulations!! You've been given a gift of music lessons at Promethean Studios, the premier location in the Metroplex for lessons and bands. At Promethean you'll take live lessons with one of the nation's top private music educators and musicians, Mark Black, who's taught well over 2500 students. Your lessons will be customized to your goals, your music, your abilities, and your personality. You're going to love your lessons and save years of wasted effort with a personable teacher who's also an amazing player, and have a blast, too - all in an atmosphere of fun and excellence. All ages, all styles, all levels. We looking forward to seeing you soon!

*Must be used at time of sign-up by new students only. Lessons subject to availability and compatibility of schedules. Prospective students unable to schedule a time will be placed on a waiting list. All lessons are subject to the normal conditions of taking lessons. These are the only strings attached, I believe.
